UPDATE: APRIL SCHEDULE

You all remain in our thoughts as we all face this unprecedented crisis impacting even the most basic aspects of our personal and professional lives. While none of us has a crystal ball to help us chart out months or even weeks from now, we choose to remain hopeful for the future. With that in mind, Kalamazoo Speedway continues to plan its 71st consecutive season; however, we don't know when the season will start or how many scheduling adjustments will ultimately need to be made. What is certain is that scheduled events for April (the two open practices and the season opener) will not be occurring as scheduled. As the Federal and State mandates continue to unfold, we, like you, will plan accordingly.

Please be good to one another.
