

Kalamazoo, Michigan. Following last week's cancellation for unseasonably cold weather, Kalamazoo Speedway was back to racing on May 14. In the Zoo Stock Tyler McGhan took fast time (16.798) with Drew Hosner, Ed Burgen, Bryson Hosner and Matt Elsey, Jr. winning the heat races. Keeping it all in the family, Ira Hosner won the 'B' feature and Dave Miller won the 'A' feature. John Munro and Tyler McGhan (pulling double duty tonight) won the heat races for the Outlaw FWD. Dave Leonard Jr. took fast time (15.165) and won the feature race. Dylan Stovall took fast time (13.867) for the Template Late Models and gave feature winner, Chris Shannon, a run for it. Chris Munson and Nick Pressler won the heats. Brian Bergakker took fast time (12.996) in the Outlaw Super Late Models with Rob Hardy and Marty Crawford taking the heat wins. Zack Cook (2017 Street Stock season champion and a rookie in the Outlaws) went from green to checkered for the win.

It's a doubleheader this weekend as the Midwest Modifieds visit the Speedway for the Modified Nationals on May 15. Joining the Modifieds will be the Street Stock and the Zoo Stock. Pits open at 8:00 AM, practice and qualifying begin at 11:00 AM with racing following at 6:00 PM.
