FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 27 – SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 29: SUPER SHOE NATIONALS XIII

They're here! The final races of the 2019 season. The close to Kalamazoo Speedway's 70th season. It's Super Shoe Weekend – Super Shoe Nationals XXXIII.

There are only 36 campsites remaining (as of publication time); 62 sites were snatched up during the Shotgun Footrace this past Sunday. To reserve one or more of the remaining campsites, visit the camp office (located as you enter through the main gates).

Come join us for a monster weekend of racing and good times before the gates close until the Season Opener on Friday, April 24, 2020. We will see you at the races!

REMINDER!

Time is almost up to purchase your raffle tickets for the enclosed trailer giveaway on Super Shoe Sunday. Tickets are $5 per ticket or 5 for $20. YOU could take home an awesome enclosed trailer (generously donated by Techworks Trailer Sales and Team Spirit Custom Trailers)—but only if you buy a ticket! All proceeds go to the Zoo Kares for Kids program, bringing a little extra cheer to area children at the holidays.

FUN FACTS

Thanks to all the drivers who raced at Kalamazoo Speedway in 2019. Some raced for a championship; some raced but didn't chase points. Some raced in a specific non-point event. All combined there were 437 drivers competing in the various classes or special race events. Some drivers competed in more than one class regularly (think Jesse Van Avery and Bill Tomlinson, for instance); others came out for a special race but otherwise raced in their home class (such as Keith Wilfong, Kenny Head and Buddy Head racing a Street Stock in Raber's Rumble). All told, 39 drivers raced in more than one class.

Curious about the ages of our 2019 drivers? Check out the chart below (doesn't include Sprint, Call of the Wild, Midwest Compacts, ARCA/CRA drivers or those who avoided turning in a Driver Information Form). The off-season is long! We'll share other Fun Facts over the coming months.
