

Kalamazoo, Michigan. Kalamazoo Speedway welcomed back all five weekly classes for the racing program on May 21, 2021. Marty Crawford claimed fast time in the Outlaw Super Late Models with a lap speed of 13.183 seconds. Zack Cook and Todd Harrington won the heat races. For the second week in a row, Zack Cook led lap one of the 40-lap feature and led at lap 40. He had serious challenges from Todd Harrington and later Mark Shook, who looked to put Cook away on several occasions. Chris Shannon was fast qualifier (13.889) with A.J. Foote and Brent Drobny winning the heats in the Template Late Models. The feature race was caution plagued with one leader or challenger after another having a bad night. A.J. Foote ran a consistently strong race, remained in the top five for much of the feature and moved into first place, despite front end damage, when leader Chris Shannon's car gave out. Brandon Zachary had fast time for the Street Stock (14.964) with Makenna Long, Barry Jenkins and Zach Westdorp winning the heat races. Tyler Hufford won the Last Chance Race and advanced to the Street Stock 'A' feature along with Barry Jenkins, Jerry Ballard and Calvin Foote. Brock Ganus picked up his first win at Kalamazoo Speedway after taking the lead five laps into the race and then fending off all challengers. Pete Doxey was fast qualifier (15.656) in the Outlaw FWD class. Nick Layman and Jake Doxey won the heat races. Will Slaughter took the early lead in the 25-lap feature and maintained the lead until 3 laps to go when Sheldon Lindlag passed him with Pete Doxey putting up an intense challenge, but it was Lindlag's night in Victory Lane. Tyler McGhan was fast qualifier (16.833) for the Zoo Stock. Blake Hybels, Joshua Nyberg, Charles Anderson and Christina Rantz won the heat races. Jared Blanchard won the 'B' feature for his first feature race of the season. Dave Miller won the 'A' feature with Logan Meade giving Miller a run for his money.

It's a doubleheader on tap next weekend when the American Speed U.S. Nationals come to town on May 28 and May 29. The Must See Sprints, Must See Midwest Lights, National Compacts plus the Speedway's own Street Stock race on Friday with the Super Modifieds, Must See Sprints, National Compacts and Zoo Stock racing on Saturday. Pit gates open at 2:00 PM with practice and qualifying starting at 4:00 PM. Racing begins at 7:00 PM.
